

THE UNDO

HALLOW

A close-up photograph of a person's legs from the knees down. They are wearing black, possibly leather, pants and black lace-up boots. The boots have a distinctive pattern of small white circles or studs along the side. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a carpet or rug. Overlaid on the image is large, stylized red text with a white outline and a dripping effect, and a white URL below it.
